This form should only be completed in applications for a financial order (which can only be applied for as part of a divorce, dissolution, annulment or (judicial) separation in the High Court or family courts in England and Wales) or for applications for financial relief after an overseas divorce/dissolution etc. If the application is for any other financial remedy please complete Form E1.

This form should be used if the application is for the variation of an order for periodical payments where the applicant seeks the dismissal (immediate or otherwise) of the periodical payments order and its substitution with one or more of a lump sum order, a property adjustment order, a pension sharing order or a pension compensation sharing order. If you are making such an application, you must complete sections 1.14 and 5.1(e) of this form.

If the application is for any other variation of an order for a financial remedy please complete Form E2.

Please fill in this form fully and accurately. Where any box is not applicable, write 'N/A'.

You have a duty to the court to give a full, frank and clear disclosure of all your financial and other relevant circumstances.

A failure to give full and accurate disclosure may result in any order the court makes being set aside.

If you are found to have been deliberately untruthful, criminal proceedings may be brought against you for fraud under the Fraud Act 2006.

The information given in this form must be confirmed by a statement of truth. Proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against a person who makes or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth.

You must attach documents to the form where they are specifically sought and you may attach other documents where it is necessary to explain or clarify any of the information that you give.

Essential documents that must accompany this statement are detailed in the form.

If there is not enough room on the form for any particular piece of information, you may continue on an attached sheet of paper.

If you are in doubt about how to complete any part of this form you should seek legal advice.

2.12 List any directorships you hold or have held in the last 12 months (other than those already disclosed in Section 2.11).

Former director of CIOJoy Limited (14918927), which was dissolved via compulsory strike-off on 22 July 2025. The company ceased trading, no longer exists, and did not file any accounts. In the interests of full transparency, I have attached historic bank statements going back to November 2024.

4 Other Information

4.1 Details of any significant changes in your assets or income.

At both sections 4.1.1 and 4.1.2, INCLUDE:

- ALL assets held both within and outside England and Wales
- The disposal of any asset

4.1.1 Significant changes in assets or income during the LAST 12 months.

My income has remained unchanged and consists solely of Universal Credit (including LCW). I have not had any employment or self-employment income at any point in the last 12 months. I have not received any income from CIOJoy Limited or VPTK Services Ltd.

Please see the continuation sheet for asset disposals during the last 12 months. The sheet also details disposals prior to the last 12 months, included for completeness.

4.1.2 Significant changes in assets or income likely to occur during the NEXT 12 months.

I do not anticipate any significant changes in my assets or income. I expect to remain on Universal Credit with LCW for the foreseeable future. Any future income from my start-up business (VPTK Services Ltd) is uncertain and unlikely in the next 12 months.

4.2 Brief details of the standard of living enjoyed by you and your spouse/civil partner during the marriage/civil partnership.

During the marriage we lived modestly. We did not have a high or extravagant lifestyle. Although we had debts which I was managing, our day-to-day living was ordinary and based on regular employment income and normal household expenditure.

4.3 Are there any particular contributions to the family property and assets or outgoings, or to family life, or the welfare of the family that have been made by you, your partner or anyone else that you think should be taken into account? If there are any such items, briefly describe the contribution and state the amount, when it was made and by whom.

INCLUDE:

- Contributions already made
- Contributions that will be made in the foreseeable future

There are no particular financial contributions to family property or assets to highlight. During the relationship I contributed to general household expenses and family life through my employment income and meeting my own financial obligations.

4.4 Bad behaviour or conduct by the other party will only be taken into account in very exceptional circumstances when deciding how assets should be shared after divorce/dissolution. If you feel it should be taken into account in your case, identify the nature of the behaviour or conduct below.

Not applicable.

4.5 Give details of any other circumstances that you consider could significantly affect the extent of the financial provision to be made by or for you or any child of the family.

INCLUDE (the following list is not exhaustive):

- Earning capacity
- Disability
- Inheritance prospects
- Redundancy
- Retirement
- Any agreement made between you and your spouse/civil partner before or after your marriage/civil partnership stating whether or not you rely upon the agreement giving your reasons
- Any plans to marry, form a civil partnership or live with a new partner
- Any contingent liabilities

My future earning capacity is severely and permanently restricted due to legal and health circumstances (LCW). The primary barrier is a Sexual Harm Prevention Order (SHPO). I am also See attached Continuation Sheet (Addendum: Section 4.5 Earning Capacity).
