STATEMENT OF ISSUES

1. That the Applicant has not given a full financial statement and has failed to disclose assets including property abroad, investments and cash assets.
2. That the Applicant has not fully disclosed the nature of her cohabitation with Mr Terry Thorne.
3. That circa £130k of the Respondent's pensions are pre-marital assets with no marital contributions. Under Standish v Standish, these are non-matrimonial and excluded from the sharing principle.
4. That there is significant marital debt of £69k borne solely by the Respondent, bringing the net matrimonial pot to negative £37k. There is no surplus to share.
5. That the Respondent (51) has very limited earning capacity until age 59 due to SHPO restrictions and cannot rebuild his pension.
6. That the Applicant (35) has full earning capacity, no debt, and 32 years to build her own pension.
